MINISTRY OF LABOUR, EMPLOYMENT AND REHABILITATION

(Directorate General of Employment and Training)

(Department of Labour and Employment)

New Delhi, the 24th July 1968

G.S.R. 1551.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class III and IV posts in the office of the Central Institute for Research and Training in Employment Service, Pusa, under the Director General, Employment and Training (Department of Labour and Employment), namely :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(i) These rules may be called the Central Institute for Research and Training in Employment Service, (Class III and Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1968.

(ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply for recruitment to the posts specified in column 1 of the Schedule annexed hereto.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and the scales of pay attached thereto, shall be as specified in columns 2 to 4 of the said Schedule.

4. Age limit, method of recruitment and other qualifications.—The age limit, qualifications, the methods of recruitment and other matters relating to the posts shall be as specified in columns 5 to 12 of the Schedule aforesaid :

Provided that the upper age limit specified in column 6 of the Schedule may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and

(b) No woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person, who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts :

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied, that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

New Delhi, the 2nd August, 1968.

G.S.R. 1554 In exercise of the powers conferred by section 57 of the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes, after previous publication and after referring a draft of the proposed amendment to the Mining Boards constituted under the Act and after giving such Boards a reasonable opportunity of reporting as to the expediency of making the said amendments and as to the suitability thereof, as required by sub-sections (1) and (4) of section 59 of the said Act, the following Regulations further to amend the Coal Mines Regulations, 1957, namely:—

1. (1) These regulations may be called the Coal Mines (Amendment) Regulations, 1968.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. In the Coal Mines Regulations, 1957, for regulation II, the following regulation shall be substituted, namely:—

“(I). Board of Mining Examinations.—(1) For the purposes of these regulations, there shall be constituted a Board of Mining Examinations, (hereinafter referred to as ‘the Board’).

(2) The Board shall consist of the Chief Inspector, who shall be its Chairman ex officio, and five members possessing technical qualifications in mining, and

(a) having practical experience in coal mines, or

(b) serving in an institution imparting education in mining engineering at the degree or equivalent level, or

(c) engaged in mining research, to be appointed by the Central Government:

Provided that the Board shall be so constituted that it shall include at least three members possessing qualifications laid down in clause (a) and at least one member possessing qualifications laid down either in clause (b) or in clause (c).

3. Every member (other than the Chairman) of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of the notification appointing him a member of the Board or until his successor is appointed and takes charge, whichever is later:

Provided that,—

(i) a member may at any time resign his office;

(ii) a member appointed under clause (b) of sub-regulation (2) shall cease to hold office upon his ceasing to serve in any such institution, as is referred to in that clause;

(iii) a person appointed to fill a vacancy caused by reason of the death, resignation, or by reason of cesser of office under sub-clause (ii), of a member, shall hold office for the remaining period for which such member would have, but for such reason, continued as member.

(4) A person who holds, or who has held, office as member of the Board shall, subject to the other provisions of this regulation, be eligible for re-appointment to that office.

(5) A member of the Board (other than the Chairman) shall receive such remuneration as the Central Government may fix.

(6) An Inspector nominated in this behalf by the Chief Inspector shall act as the Secretary to the Board.

(7) No act or proceeding of the Board shall be invalidated merely by reason of any vacancy or other defect in its constitution.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, the Central Government may, if satisfied that it is necessary so to do in the public interest, re-constitute the Board even though the term of office of all or any of the members thereof has not come to an end."

[No. 1/41/66-M.I.]

New Delhi, the 14th August 1968

G.S.R. 1555.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 57 of the Mines Act, 1952 (35 of 1952), the Central Government hereby makes, after previous publication and after referring a draft thereof to the Mining Boards constituted under the Act and after giving such Boards a reasonable opportunity of reporting as to the expediency of making the proposed amendments and as to the suitability thereof, as required by sub-sections (1) and (4) of section 59 of the said Act, makes the following regulations further to amend the Metalliferous Mines Regulations, 1961, namely :—

1. These regulations may be called the Metalliferous Mines (Amendment) Regulations, 1968.

2. In sub-regulation (2) of regulation 12 of the Metalliferous Mines Regulations, 1961, for clauses (f) and (g), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely :—
